

Sunday Mass and more can be watched here:

St. Luke's <https://twitter.com/saintlukesbull>

Catholic Cathedral: Daily Masses will be live streamed from St John's Cathedral every day at 10am. You can watch all of these Masses at: www.sjbcathedral.org.uk

Walsingham <https://www.walsingham.org.uk/live-stream/>

And also churchservices.tv has Masses from all over Britain and Ireland.

Those of you who remember Father Sean Connolly may like to know he is doing an Evening Prayer podcast every evening. You can listen between 6pm-9pm. It's about 10 minutes long and you can follow the text online: <http://www.stgeorgenorwich.com/welcome>

For those parishioners who are not 'silver surfers' and don't have the internet, the Cardinal has pointed to RTE in Ireland. They broadcast Sunday Mass on 252 LongWave on the radio/wireless at 11am - occasionally it may be a service from another denomination - and will also broadcast the Holy Week and Feast Day Masses.

If you have Sky, channel 588 is the EWTN Catholic channel. You will not need an internet connection to watch this, just a Sky box. EWTN is free to air so if you have a working Sky box you can watch it even if you don't subscribe to Sky anymore.

Dial A Mass opportunity: Telephone Sunday Mass from St Mary's cathedral, Middlesborough is being offered by Middleborough diocese. The Mass is recorded at 12noon on Sunday and is available once it's been uploaded so after 1pm is best. It is then available all week. The number to call is 01642 130120. Calls are charged at local rate and free if in your included minutes. Rebecca tried it and you can hear it hands free with your speaker volume up so a couple can listen together.
